Your Content in our Services

Our service allows you to submit, store, send or receive content. You retain ownership of any intellectual property rights that you hold in that content. In short, what belongs to you stays yours.

When you submit, store, send or receive content to or through our Services, you give GSI a license to use, host, store, reproduce, modify, create derivative works (such as those resulting from translations, adaptations or other changes we make so that your content works better with our Services), communicate, publish, publicly display and distribute such content. The rights you grant in this license are for the limited purpose of operating, promoting, and improving our Services, and to develop new ones. This license continues even if you stop using our Services.

Our automated systems analyze your content (including searches) to provide you personally relevant freight rates. This analysis occurs as the content is sent, received, and when it is stored.

About Modules in GSI Services

When a Service requires or includes downloadable software, this software may update automatically on your device once a new version or feature is available. Some Services may let you adjust your automatic update settings.

GSI gives you a professional, regional (country-specific), royalty-free (if explicitly mentioned), non-assignable and non-exclusive license to use the software provided to you by GSI as part of the Services. This license is for the sole purpose of enabling you to use and enjoy the benefit of the trucking Services as provided by GSI, in the manner permitted by these terms. You may not copy, modify, distribute, sell, or lease any part of our Services or included software, nor may you reverse engineer or attempt to extract the source code of that software.

How do we access your data?

We access the data from GSI Logistics sales-force CRM, which is strictly necessary in order to make the application function comprehensive. We carefully evaluate and define the purposes of any personal data processing before launching a project. We will ensure that the personal data we collect are relevant, adequate and not excessive in relation to the purpose of the processing and its eventual use. This means that only necessary and relevant information for the purpose sought can be collected and processed.

Personal data we collect

We may collect the following information about you: Information that directly identifies you. This may include your name and email address and contact number.

How do we use your data?

We will use your personal data only for the purposes for which we collect it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason that is compatible with the original purpose.
Purpose: Register you as a user on our Google Assistant App using your Gmail and you will be verified with Google Sign In and for WhatsApp functionalities and communication. In addition, to generate rates for you as a user, we will require your data.

Type of data: Data that directly identifies you (such as your name, email address, phone number and other information that is included in your user profile).

How do we store your data?

Our application stores your data in our database. We store only the data that is absolutely necessary for our application to function in its entirety. Deleting some of this data will interrupt our application functionality. However, if you do not want us to store your data, you can send us your request to gia@gsicargo.com and we will permanently delete it from our database.
